PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University (Virginia Tech)

Director of School of Public and International Affairs, 8/2019-present.

SPIA is a professional school of policy, planning, and international affairs which is strategically located in Blacksburg and Richmond in the Commonwealth of Virginia as well as the Greater Washington DC Metro area. Committed to impacting change on the global, national and local levels, SPIA faculty and students engages with communities and organizations to work on questions of planning, policy, administration and governance, security, sustainability, collaboration, resilience, economic development and more.

Syracuse University (SU)

Provost Office, Provost's Faculty Fellow for Internationalization, 2015-17; Co-Chair, Internationalization Council, 2016-17; Co-Chair, Academic Strategic Plan Working Group on Enhancing Internationalization, 2014-16; SU Representative to the American Council on Education's Internationalization Laboratory (2015-17), and the American Council on Education's Institute for Leading Internationalization (2015)

- Internationalization was one of the six principals of SU's new academic strategic plan. I was deeply engaged in the development and implementation of this goal in the above roles which increased the international footprint of the university.
- One of two lead drafters of SU's strategic plan to strengthen internationalization

Member of the University Leadership Team (2015-17), and the Academic Strategic Plan Steering Committee (8/2014-5/2015)

Chairperson, Department of Political Science (PSC), 2014-17

- Leadership responsibility for 33 full-time faculty, with 3 full-time staff, and 12 adjunct faculty (second largest department at the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs)
- Program oversight for 640 undergraduates, and 65 Ph.D. students in a unit that produces 12,800 undergraduate credit hours and 1,000 graduate credit hours annually
- Budgeting and strategic fiscal planning ($2 million AY school-held salary budget, and $100,000 annual operating budget)
- Launched a number of key initiatives including starting PSC's Middle States Assessment review efforts (including an ideational exercise and SWOT analysis), adopting new graduate and undergraduate assessment plans, creating more 200-level and 400-level courses, codifying departmental policies, updating department's Faculty Procedures and Evaluation Policy, making departmental finances more transparent, analyzing discrepancies in salaries of male and female faculty colleagues, cleaning up (deactivating, regularizing and approving for credit) list of course offerings, and updating the department's web page

- Administered the hiring of five new assistant professors (three women) and two postdocs, and promotion & tenure of five faculty members
- Expanded total undergraduate credit hours taught by 6% during my term as chair

Founding Co-Director, Religion, Media & International Affairs Program, 2006-09

- This project, funded by the Luce Foundation, created 10 new or revamped courses and 12 case studies to illustrate the vital role played by religion and religious beliefs in international affairs
- Handled all budget/financial issues, hired all graduate assistants and case writers, edited and commented on all 12 case studies, wrote annual reports
- Organized an international conference entitled Old and New Media, and the Changing Faces of Islam which brought ten leading journalists and scholars to SU (2009)

Founding Director, Middle Eastern Studies Program (MESP), 2003-14

- Founded and led this interdisciplinary program for 11 years. Under my leadership, MESP grew to include 25 faculty members and became one of the most popular regional studies concentrations at SU
- Led the entire program and curriculum development process for MESP to offer a Major, Minor and a Certificate of Advanced Study for Graduate Students (including approval by the New York State Department of Education)
- Helped with the recruitment of ten new faculty members across the university
- Helped MESP faculty to regularize 35 courses, and increased the number of our typical semester course offering from less than 12 in 2003 to 25 in 2013
- Organized conferences, lectures, language tables, film screening and published a total of 11 newsletters (2007-13)
- Arranged for eight Middle Eastern visiting scholars to come to SU and spend anywhere between 4 to 24 months on campus
- Traveled to Bahrain, Lebanon, Kuwait, Turkey, and UAE to meet with donors and alumni, establish exchange relationships, and find internship placements
- Community outreach

Director of Graduate Studies, Department of Political Science, 2001-04

- Program oversight for over 50-65 Ph.D. and M.A. candidates each year
- Chaired an admission committee reviewing 120-180 applications each year
- Oversaw the addition of ten new TA slots allocated to PSC by the Maxwell Dean to accommodate record number of undergraduate majors
- Revised policy regarding the use of Research Assistants (RA) positions
- Assigned six graduate students to serve as Research Assistants (RAs) each year
- Redesigned the methods requirement for our PhD students
- Revised and codified policies regarding the Oral Qualifying Examinations and oversaw the exam process
- Provided reading lists for all PSC doctoral subfields to help students prepare for Oral Qualifying Examinations
- Instituted the process of having the Graduate Studies Committee approve each student's "Program of Study" before clearing them to take the Oral Qualifying Examination
- Started to bundle fellowships with summer research grants to attract better students

- Supervised the awarding of funding and departmental prizes
- Regularized a good number of graduate course offerings

Faculty appointments

Professor of Political Science, 2014-2019; Associate Professor of Political Science, 1998-2014; Assistant Professor of Political Science, 1992-98; Affiliated Faculty, Institute for National Security and Counterterrorism, 2015-2019

Executive Leadership Training

American Council on Education Fellow, 2017-18

Host Institution: California State University, Northridge (CSUN)

Competitively selected by ACE for this premier preparation program for aspiring executive leaders committed to shaping the future of higher education. Engaged in workshops, orientation, campus visits (fifteen total), and annual ACE conference. At CSUN, I observed and participated in the meetings of the President's Extended Cabinet, the Provost's Staff, Senate, University Foundation, and the Board of Trustees of the California State University System. I worked with CSUN's President and Provost on three student success projects:

- Mapping the three-year (2017-20) plans of all CSUN Colleges for CSUN Shines for the Future Planning Priorities, which defines the university's eight major goals
- Calculated targets for raising the graduation rates and reducing the achievement gap of full-time freshman and full-time transfers in each college as part of efforts to reach the goals of Graduation Initiative 2025
- Created an inventory of the interventions and measurements adopted by each college in the following seven broad areas: Advisement; Curriculum, Enrollment & Scheduling; Faculty Support & Engagement; Retention, Equity Gap & Graduation; Staff Support & Engagement; Student Engagement & Belonging; and Student Mentoring, Tutoring and Online Education

Appointments

Visiting Scholar, Center for Near Eastern Studies, UCLA, 2017-18

PUBLICATIONS

Books:

Post-revolutionary Iran: A Political Handbook (Syracuse University Press, 2018)

- This 853-page political encyclopedia provides the most comprehensive collection of data on political life in post-revolutionary Iran, including coverage of 36 national elections, more than 400 legal and outlawed political organizations, and family ties among the elite. It also provides biographical sketches of more than 2,300 political personalities.
- Reviewed (so far) in Middle East Quarterly (Spring 2019), Arab Weekly (June 2018), and Middle East Librarians Association (April 2019).

(ed.), Mirror for the Muslim Prince: Islam and Theory of Statecraft (Syracuse University Press, 2013; paperback edition 2017)

- In this edited volume, a group of distinguished scholars reinterpret concepts and canons of Islamic thinking in Arab, Persian, South Asian, and Turkish traditions and argue that there is no unitary “Islamic” position on important issues of statecraft and governance. My own contribution included a single-authored introduction, and an original co-written chapter: “On Sa’di’s Treatise on Advice to the Kings.”

Tarashidam, Parastidam, Shikastam: Guftarhay-i dar Siyasat va Huviyat-i Irani [I Carved, Worshiped and Shattered: Essays on Iranian Politics and Identity] (Tehran: Nashr-e Negah-e Mo`aser, 2010)

- This book encompasses a collection of 18 of my Persian-language essays that explore Iran’s intellectual history in the interwar period (1919-1939) and the post-1979 era.

Iranian Intellectuals and the West: Tormented Triumph of Nativism (Syracuse University Press, 1996)

- This book examined the works of ten thinkers seminal in defining modern Iranian identity.
- Reviewed in American Political Science Review, Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, Contemporary Sociology, Foreign Affairs, International History Review, International Journal of Middle East Studies, International Migration Review, Iranian Studies, Islamic Studies, Middle East Journal, Middle East Studies Association Bulletin, Middle Eastern Studies, Midwest Book Review
